E-mail: thewedmaninhuron@gmail.com Telephone: 519-606-2468

Floyd Herman is well-known throughout Huron County as a former Music teacher and school Principal. Or you may remember him as the voice of Huron County when the CBC Radio show "Ontario Morning" offered a bi-weekly Huron County Report. Floyd also acts in local theatre, and has performed professionally at the Blyth Summer Festival. He is frequently called upon to emcee major festivals and events. He is also currently a church organist and choir conductor. But the real love of his life is his family: wife Liz, and three daughters who have now provided Floyd and Liz with three perfect grandchildren.

With Floyd Herman marrying you, you will get exactly what you want in terms of a personalized wedding. Floyd will meet with the couple, bringing a host of suggestions and samples for a unique and meaningful ceremony; and, if you prefer, Floyd will assist you in creating your own vows. Following this meeting, Floyd will either create or find a short message especially chosen for the bride and groom, that will be a part of the ceremony. And the entire service will be printed and given to the happy couple as a "forever keepsake" of what was said at their wedding.

Floyd loves the role of Marriage Commissioner, because as he says, "Surely the most beautiful thing on this planet is love. And nothing symbolizes love more than a bride and groom on their wedding day. It's such an honour and privilege to a part of such a gloriously happy occasion."

You can reach Floyd at 519-606-2468 or e-mail him at thewedmaninhuron@gmail.com (and wedding references are certainly available upon request).
